

CHENREZIG THANGKA RAFFLE

To Benefit Kagyu Dakshang Chuling
Dharma Center

This exquisite traditional Thangka of Chenrezig was donated to KDC by a member (who wishes to remain anonymous) for the purpose of raising funds to help maintain our Dharma Center.

Chenrezig is the deity of love and compassion and is one of the principle deities in Vajrayana Buddhism. The meditation practice of Chenrezig is one of the main practices at KDC as well as the main practice of many Dharma students. Having this Thangka in one's own home would serve both as an inspiration for one's daily Dharma practice and as an excellent reference for visualization of the deity Chenrezig.

If you have been contemplating making a donation to KDC, then this is the perfect opportunity for you. By purchasing a raffle ticket, not only will you have a chance to win this exquisite thangka, you will acquire merit by helping KDC fulfill His Eminence Kalu Rinpoche's wish that KDC will always remain in existence and will benefit many generations of beings by showing them the path to liberation and freedom from the endless cycle of samsara.

Raffle tickets are only $10 each and may be purchased from Kathleen Epstein, 33482 Bloomberg Road, Eugene, OR 97405, (541) 746-6459, e-mail: khepsteinor@comcast.net.

The drawing for the thangka will be held on Sunday, September 23, 2012. Ticket holders do not need to be present to win. If you live out of town, we can arrange to ship it to you, or hold it until your next visit to KDC.
